A screenshot of a web browser displaying the Barberscore Session Manager interface. The page shows a list of entries for a 'Chorus Session - Cardinal District Fall 2017 Convention'. The entries are numbered 1 through 5, with names like 'Chorus Of The Dunes' and 'The Banks of the Wabash Chorus'. Each entry has a status column showing 'Approved'. At the bottom left is a blue 'Verify Session' button, and at the bottom right is a status message 'Session Status: Closed'. Two yellow callout boxes with black text are overlaid on the page. One box, positioned above the status bar, says 'Done. New order' with a red arrow pointing from the 'Success' button at the top right. The other box, positioned over the list of entries, says 'When ready to publicize, click verify.' with a red arrow pointing from the 'Verify Session' button at the bottom left.

Verify Session

This makes the draw public and sends a note to all entries that the session is officially verified and ready to go. You can still manually add entries and rearrange the draw following verification; however, since it is public this should be done sparingly and only under truly exceptional circumstances.

Start Session

This officially starts the session and represents the official handoff from the DRCJ to the Contest Administrator. After the session is started it is put into a locked down state; you won't be able to add, scratch, re-arrange the draw or take any actions. Any changes subsequent to a session Start must be handled by the CA.

Cancel Start Session

Once you start the session you won't be able to make any changes. It gets turned over to the CA
